The sign on the Chapel door reads "Be still and know that I am"

Again this year, all Christians are invited to spend some quiet time at Mt. Iraneaus. Nights are Wednesday's June 27th, July 11th, 18th and 25th, ending on August 1st.

Typical night starts at 5:15 pm in the Chapel. A brief reading and setting a theme for the evening is first. Then quiet time is next, either out on the land or down at the house of peace. The dinner bell is rang at 6:30 and a share the pot dinner is done at the house. At 7:30 a worship service is done back up the hill at the Chapel. All baptized Christians are welcome to share in the Body and Blood of our Savior.

We are welcome individually or as a group. Betty Hooker who is a Secular Franciscan at the Mountain and Jerry Maerten can answer your questions.
